Ecclesiastical Declaration of Forehead Seal and Left-Hand Binding

By Jonathan Daniel Clements

Living Man | Ecclesiastical Steward | Founder of the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust

Preamble

In full consciousness and submission to the Creator of the Universe, I declare the supernatural marks on my being as divine seal and appointment. The mark on my forehead — a kingly figure crowned with a hand raised — and the red dot upon my left palm were received without human cause, during the fulfillment of sacred duty and labor.

Let it be hereby recorded that these markings are not of fleshly intent, but of divine origin, and serve as testimony, symbol, and appointment by the Creator. These marks shall not be profaned nor misinterpreted by any court, state, or body of man.

Dated and decreed under the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust,

Jonathan Daniel Clements
